CANDIDATE TENER HAS NO NOTION OF WITHDRAWING

Replys to Traducers in no Uncertain Terms.

HE TRUSTS THE PEOPLE

Does Not Fear Investigation of His Past Business Life

Before an immense crowd of enthusiastic supporters at Uniontown last night Congressman John K. Tener, Republican candidate for Governor, served notice upon his traducers who have attacked his business career and private life that he has no thought of withdrawing from the contest. He is perfectly willing to have his business life examined and investigated, and has no fears as to such results. He said:

"My attention has been called to an open letter addressed to Senator Boies Penrose by a certain newspaper, calling upon him to take certain action looking toward my withdrawal as a candidate for Governor. While that letter was not addressed to me and possbily should not be referred to by me, yet I desire to say here now that I was nominated by the Republicans of Pennsylvania and am responsible only to them.

"My business life has always been in the open. I am perfectly willing that the peope of Pennsylvania should know all about it. I have no fear of any statement of facts and I do not believe that the voters of this State will be deceived by any misrepresentation."

This declaration, which was made from the balcony of the McClelland House in Uniontown to a vast crowd that choked the street below, was received with tumultous applause. It is estimated that 30,000 people visited Uniontown yesterday. Special trains and trolleys were run from the Monongahela valley and the interior of the county, while autos and vehicles brought hundreds more. In the afternoon the Italian societies of the section celebrated Columbus Day by a big parade, after which Mr. Tener made an address to them and was accorded a big ovation.

Mr. Tener arrived in Uniontown in advance of the rest of his party. Among those who met him at the

ENROLLMENT IN SCHOOLS

Increase Over That of Last Year for First Month.

The enrollment at the close of the first school month, high school and grades according to a report of Superintendent James G. Pentz, received by the school board at their postponed meeting Tuesday night, was 1,861, just 78 more, than the enrollment for the first month last year. Last year's enrollment at the beginning was 1,661, with an average attendance of 97 per cent. The report of Prof. Pentz for the past month follows:

Enrollment for year grades	1,780
Enrollment for year high school	81
Total	1,861
Grade average attendance	1,735
High Schoo' average attendance	79
Total	1,814
Grade per cent of attendance	98
High school per cent of attendance	98
Non resident pupils grades	29
Non resident pupils, high school	30
Absent on account of contagious disease	5
Number pupils out voluntarily for help	123
Visits by parents and patrons	67

The report is considered an exceptionally good one. One of the features is the number of non-resident pupils in attendance, this indicating the fact that the standard of the Charleroi schools is higher than that in other nearby towns.

Sargent-Gainer

Miss Anne Sargent and Samuel Gainer, both of Fredericktown, were married by Rev. C. E Frontz, pastor of Christ Lutheran church, at his residence yesterday morning at 8:30 o'clock The couple left on a trip to Pittsburg and other places, and it is likely will go to housekeeping in Fredericktown upon their return. Both are well known in their home community.

APPROPRIATION BUT SLIGHTLY INCREASED

School Treasurer Receives Check from State for General School Fund in Charleroi District.

Treasurer R. H. Rush of the Charleroi School district has lately received the State appropriaton for the Charleroi schools and a small increase is noted. The appropriation is for the grades, the high school appropriation being separate.

The check revived by Mr. Rush is for $7,311.10, an increase of just $12.31 over the last year's school appropriation. This sum will be placed in the general fund. The appropriation last year was $7,297.97. The high school appropriation last year was $345 and will probably not be much greater this year

The appropriation is based upon three factors—the number of teachers, the numcer of children in the district of school age, and the number of taxables.

GOVERNOR NAMES FALL ARBOR DAY

October 28 is Set as the Time for Special Observance

State Superintendent of Public Instruction Nathan C. Schaffer Wednesday proclaimed Friday, October 28 as the Autumnal Arbor Day. In his proclamation Schaeffer says:

The observance of Arbor Day has created a patriotic interest in the planting and presenvation of trees. It has convinced the public of the importance of stopping and preventing forest fires, of the need of reforesting the vast mountain acres from which the timber has been cut and the necessity of conserving the forests at the sources of our streams, thereby to regulate the flow of water and to lessen the floods and freshets which rob the land of its soil and fertility; moreover, it now is admitted generally that Arbor Day should be observed when all the country schools are in session. For this purpose Friday, October 28, 1910, is designated as autumn Arbor Day, and all the schools both public and private are urged hereby to observe the day by suitable exercises, especially by the planting of trees. Let all plant trees and ask others to plant trees.

STATEMENT IS BRANDED

Union Labor Was Employed to Paint Tener Home

One of the petty, but thoroughly despicable and slanderous attempts, which opposition like the Pittsburg Leader and other newspapers of the same unreliable nature seek to employ to injure Hon. John K. Tener and lower him in the estimation of the people, has been branded as false. This is through a sworn statement of Harry W. Geho, president Local Union 327, Brotherhood of Painters, Decorators and Paper Hangers of America. The statement was made for publication and is a complete retraction of the statement made last week in the Pittsburg Leader and other unscrupulous journals not caring particularly for the truth of the assertion, that Mr. Tener's home had been painted by "scab" painters. The statement which was originally addressed to the Pittsburg Gazette Times, follows:

Pittsburg Gazette Times,
Pittsburg, Pa.

Gentlemen:

Owing to a recent statement in the Pittsburg Leader to the effect that Mr. John K. Tener, candidate for Governor of Pennsylvania, had his Charleroi residence painted by "scab" labor, I desire to say that such is not the case, as the contractor employed union labor in painting Mr. Tener's house.

Very respectfully,
Harry W. Geho,
President of Local Union 327, Brotherhood of Painters, Decorators and Paper Hangers of America.

Sworn and subscribed before me this twelfth day of October, A. D., 1910.

Black Hand Methods

Congressman John K Tener's frank and manly statement in regard to the scurrilous attack of the Philadelphia North American upon his private business character is in marked contrast to the Black Hand and blackmailing methods of that paper which has resorted to most desperate methods in trying to bolster up the losing cause it espoused. As Mr. Tener states, his whole business career has been an open book, as his business associates and neighbors well know, and any statements to the contrary can easily be disproved. Mudslinging tactics are common in political campaigns, and curiously enough the most despicable type of this method of campaigning comes from a so-called party of morality and reform. Concerning this method of campaigning the Pittsburg Gazette Times truthfully says:

"The mudslinger, the slanderer and the masked man with stiletto are abroad in the land in Pennsylvania, and they have picked out John K. Tener for their victim. From now on until election the public may expect every conceivable display of venom and malice, every near black mailing device known to scoundrelism, with Mr. Tener as the object before the people, and dismayed at the sure prospect of his election nothing that thugery and desperation can suggest will be overlooked by the despicable champions of a beaten cause."

These attacks cannot injurer Tener. The animus that inspires them is recognized by the people who believe in the American spirit of fair play, and the recorded vote will show that Black Hand methods will not win an election for the so-called and self-constituted group that poses as moral reformers.

No Double Taxes

In its efforts to array Republican voters against the admirable system of State taxation, the Washington Observer tries to make a point by asserting that the railroad corporations do not pay any local taxes on their rights of way, and because of this the individual pays more taxes than the railroad corporations. This is the old stock argument that demagogues flash upon the uninformed, and nothing is further from the truth. The corporations pay nearly three-fourths of the expenses of the State goverment, and if these corporations were exempt from the special tax imposed upon them, and paid their pro rata of local tax, on their public service holdings, the individuals would come in for their share of the State tax, which would be more burdensome, as many of the corporations that now pay this special tax do not have anything like railroad tracks to tax locally.

The revenue collected in Pennsylvania 1909 for State purposes was $29,011,183.70, and of this amount the corporations paid $16,961,602.02. If the corporations were forced to pay local taxes on certain holdings which are a part of the corporate structure on which they are taxed specially, the people would have to share in the payment of the sixteen millions collected from the corporations. Under the present system the odds are in favor of the individual.

In addition the State returns to the counties three fourths of the amounts collected for State purposes from the people. This in addition to the school appropriation and the amount received [illegible] liquor licenses, gives each county more than the State than it pays out in [illegible] instance. Washington county paid State taxes last year to the amount of $137,444 89. and got back from the State $513,582.20, giving a balance in favor of the county of $376,147.31. In other words, for every dollar Washington county paid to the State it got over three dollars back. Pennsylvania's tax system is being held up a model by tax commissions and eminent economists who are studying the taxation system, and it is everywhere acknowledged as one of the best in existence.

A Test

Through the regular channels of the law a test will be made locally of the merits of the State Railway commission, a body created by act of Assembly to adjust grievances between individuals and firms and public service corporations. The case in question is whether or not a street railway company can be made to accommodate the traveling public in the way of better connections between given points. Under present conditions a large portion of the traveling public is greatly discommoded, and it will be up to the State Railway commission to determine whether or not the corporations have a valid reason for maintaining present conditions.

Because of their public franchises which give them special privileges the corporations are in duty bound to serve the public. Heretofore the scope and sphere of such service have been entirely discretionary with the corporations, but on complaint that this discretion has been arbitrarily abused at times, the State commission has been constituted to adjust complaints and differences. A failure to abide by the decision of the commission may subject the corporation to a forfeiture of its State charter. The present case affords a local test of the merits of the commission, and the railroads will no doubt be compelled to show why, at least, they cannot conform to the convenience of the public.

ELECTRIC SPARKS

William H. Berry says he used to be a mechanic. He has nothing on John K. Tener who used to be a mail worker.

The Washington Observer says 1,500 voters listened to Berry and Gibbony talk at California. Not that it matters, but the crowd was not over 150 in number, reckoning at the outside limits.

Two important events have occurred at Monongahela this year, the capture of an escaped murderer and a visit of a woman in black.

Valley and county people at large are tired of talking to B. and O. and Pittsburg Railways officials about making things more convenient for travel to the county seat. The State Railroad commission is the alternative to which they have resorted.

For man's peace of mind and the preservation of his reputation it is advisible for him not to sleep on street car or railroad tracks.

The death rate for 1909 in the registration cities of the country dropped to 15 per thousand, the lowest on record. Does this mean that people have quit dying so young or just have become contaminated with the "back to the farm" movement and moved out of the large cities.

It is so important over in Westmoreland county to have people married that they stop court to permit the judge to perform the ceremony.

that in Germany, and cited as an example of the enthusiasm there the fact that at a recent meeting when a call for volunteer candidates was made 137 responded. Mrs. M. M. Albeck, of Monongahela spoke following Dr. Jensen, appearing as a representative of the Women's Home and Foreign Missonary society.

Upon recommendation of the special investigating committee appointed yesterday, of which Rev. H. W. Hanson of Allegheny was chairman, St. Paul's church of Kittanning was admitted to the Pittsburg Synod.

The obituaries of Rev. G. M. Heindel, D D., late of Pittsburg and Rev. B. F. Shaner late of Tarentum were read and both ministers paid fitting tributes. Rev. W. Koolan, a representative of the Tabitha Home at Lincoln, Neb., which is reputed to be the best church hospital and home in the United States, was present and gave a stirring address of the work being done by the home. Rev. Stewart A. Hartman, D. D., of the home mission board spoke of the mission work being done in the northwestern field. Rev. J. Walter Miller of the American Bible society gave an account of what is being done by this international body, and said that there are Bibles in 30 different languages at the Pittsburg Depository at 41 Wood street, to be had by any person who makes proper application.

The night session was taken up by two addresses carrying out the "Foreign Mission Anniversary" program. The first was by Rev. John Aberly, D. D., a "returned" missionary of India home on a furlough. He spoke of "The Open Door of India," and said that the depressed classes there are through their acceptances of truths as taught by missonaries being elevated from their former condition. He said that India was open to both good and evil, but the latter was being counteracted by combining forces in accomplishing the former.

Rev. Taylor B. Yeakley of Pittsburg closed the meeting with his address on "The World's Leaven," claiming this to be the Word of God, the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

Tonight will be one of the most important meetings of the synod, when four candidates will be ordained into the ministery. They are: Charles W. Barnetto Chicora; James Uber of Milroy; J. W. Shearer of Elrama and W. R. Goff. S. Ernest Smith, Thomas Shearer, W. K. Robb, Paul Tau, will be licensed to preach.

station were Josiah V. Thompson, Congressman A. F. Cooper, County Chairman Ash F. Williams and George F Titlow. The program was to take the party to the Summit Hotel, high up in the Allegheny mountains, for luncheon.

The start was made from the station, and about a dozen automobiles were required to carry the party. Before luncheon the guests were taken out to Fort Necessity and Braddock's grave. Visits were also made to the country homes of Mr. Thompson, Mr. Titlow and Charles H. Seaton.

The party returned from the mountains in time to review the Italian societies. Later Mr. Tener was greeted at the Titlow and McClelland Hotels by thousands of Republicans from Fayette and Greene counties, as well as from all along the valley. A big delegation went up from Charleroi, Monessen, Belle Vernon and other valley towns. In the evening the balance of the campaign party arrived, and the speaking took place from the balcony of the McClelland House. Among those who made addresses in addition to Mr. Tener were Senator Crow, Congressman John F. Reynolds, Senator Langfitt, Col Crago, and others. The rally was one of the most enthusiastic in the campaign, and showed clearly that Republicanism is still alive in "Old Fiet."

Gone For Good.

Some folks in foreign lands have their own way of determining whether their relatives who have migrated to this land of ours have become hopelessly Americanized. One old lady in Germany reached her conclusion in a way that can be appreciated only by those who know the type of the German butter dish, deep as a bowl, and the German reverence therefor. Last week her granddaughter in New York received this sad lament:

"You will never come back. You are lost to us. Hans (a cousin) arrived here from New York on Monday and reports that you have even given up our deep German butter dishes and are using those shallow little plates that Americans like."—New York Times.

"Because," answered the tiny tot, with a quivering lip—"because he only weighs six pounds. Come back next month an' I'll see if we can't make a deal."—Cleveland Leader.

The Cry of the Age is "Back to the Farm"

With the best market in the world at his door, the intensive farmer located in the Monongahela valley is the wise man of his generation.

Every town has as much need of the small truck, fruit and poultry farms around it as it has for more factories. Such farms make living better and cheaper for the laboring man and more business for the merchant.

I have secured control of a large farm within five minutes walk of the borough limits and will, within the next six weeks, sell it out in small farms. I now have purchasers for about one-half of it and owing to the great demand for small farms near Charleroi expect to close all sales for these farms in a very short time.

A farm big enough for all the boys to work as a truck, poultry and fruit farm while the father works at the mill, can be bought for the price of a cheap town lot. Good country school nearby.

A farm big enough to require the whole time of one intensive farmer can be bought for $500.00. Read the Pittsburg papers about the great land show which will be held there within the next few weeks and learn what can be raised on a few acres of ground by the new methods of intensive farming.

Call at the office of Charles O. Frye, 511 Washington Avenue, and get full particulars.

Life Insurance or Death Insurance—Which?

People willingly pay large sums for life insurance, which is really death insurance; but real life insurance frequently consists in taking Eckman's Alterative.

Can any "lung sick" person afford not to take the Alterative?

It sharpens the appetite, makes life look different, brings better health with greater earning power. Often persons are so much improved that they can work even before they are finally cured.

Investigate it, if you are broad minded enough to believe that there can be a cure for Consumption which has not been sensationally exploited, or which is not based merely on climatic or diet restrictions. Mr. Webb's report follows:—

Weldon, Ill.

Gentlemen: "During 1905, my physician sent me to Texas, from there to Colorado. I became worse and was sent home to die. I heard of Eckman's Alterative, began treatment, and was cured. I earnestly recommend Eckman's wonderful cure for Consumption."

Berryman's Shop Talk

BLANKETS

This store has been buying Blankets of the right kind for most fifteen years and found only one bad one, and that customer got a new blanket, and then admitted two rambunctious boys had set on a hole in it. Isn't that a record? Well! We think so and so do the people, and that accounts for them coming here in such large numbers for blankets.

You've got to depend on a store for blankets of the right kind, and the store depends on the manufacturer. Now we say, "leave it to us." We won't overcharge you, but good blankets with good wool cost a fair price.

Our blankets are now in and marked in plain figures, and you can see them with both eyes open and feel of their goodness with both hands. Oh! It's easy to buy good blankets here.

This year we've added a line of fine all cotton blankets and they look like the wool—are pretty, soft and serviceable and sell at $2.00, $2.50, $3.00, $3.50.

Then there comes the cotton blankets that are used so much for sheets—and we've got the kind that's big enough for a sheet, light and dark colors. These good sized blankets sell at $1.00, $1.25, $1.50 and $2.00, and we don't think you want the smaller kind.

Comfortables—they used to call them Haps—well, Haps or Comfortables or Bed Quilts, we've got them and Jack Frost is sending in the buyers. There is nothing like having what the people want when they want it.

And that just reminds me that this big store has received over thirty thousand dollars' worth of new and dependable goods within the last six weeks. Well, I guess you'll find what you want when you want it.

Have you bought your boy your winter suit yet? Now you won't do justice to your boy until you see our Boy's Clothing. Let the boys come in—they'll tell you. More than that, we don't care if the boy is four years or two times forty years, we've got the right clothes for him, and we guarantee the goods and the price.

Shop talk may seem easy, but we are here to prove—it matters not if you are from Missouri or Pennsylvania.

RUSSIAN SYMPHONY LAST TO BE HEARD

Famous Orchestra Will Close Pittsburg Exposition

The Russian Symphony Orchestra will begin a six days' engagement at the Exposition on Monday afternoon October 17. This will be the last week of the season and no better attraction for a closing feature could have been selected than the famous organization that has popularized Russian melody throughout the country. The return of this brilliant company of musicians will no doubt be hailed with delight by the music loving public. The appearance last year of this orchestra is well remembered. It came to Pittsburg practically unknown and went away leaving behind none but fond and lingering memories in the minds of all those who had the pleasure of attending the concerts. It was the Russian Symphony that acquainted Pittsburg with the works of many noted Russian composers whose compositions were never heard here before. The purpose of this orchestra was to familiarize the American public with the compositions of Russian music masters and in doing so it has entrenched itself in the hearts of the people throughout the country. In the present day development of the symphony orchestra, and of the best in music, the Russian Symphony players and their gifted conductor, Modest Altschuler, have contributed a generous part. After seven years of hard work this institution has finally taken its place among the great orchestras of the United States.

Director Altschuler plans to offer orchestral works of the German, French and English schools at the forthcoming concerts, and enough compositions of so-called popular nature to combine, with other numbers, programs that will satisfy every variety of musical taste.

As next week is to be the last of the season large crowds will no doubt pay the Exposition a farewell visit. In a short time the wonderful wireless telegraph demonstration, the picturesque naval spectacle Monitor and Merrimac, with its never-to-be-forgotten battle; the postoffice exhibit, the Latin-America booth, with its interesting information about trade relations and the Panama canal; the great mechanical and electrical features and many others will soon pass from view to become a pleasant memory of a season fraught with pleasure and entertainment of the highest type.

Similar Tastes.

Belle—But do you think you and he are suited to each other? Nell—Oh, perfectly! Our tastes are quite similar. I don't care very much for him, and he doesn't care very much for me.—Paris Figaro.

Willing to Pass.

CANDIDATE TENER HAS NO NOTION OF WITHDRAWING

Replys to Traducers in no Uncertain Terms.

HE TRUSTS THE PEOPLE

Does Not Fear Investigation of His Past Business Life

Before an immense crowd of enthusiastic supporters at Uniontown last night Congressman John K Tener, Republican candidate for Governor, served notice upon his traducers who have attacked his business career and private life that he has no thought of withdrawing from the contest. He is perfectly willing to have his business life examined and investigated, and has no fears as to such results. He said:

"My attention has been called to an open letter addressed to Senator Boies Penrose by a certain newspaper, calling upon him to take certain action looking toward my withdrawal as a candidate for Governor. While that letter was not addressed to me and possibly should not be referred to by me, yet I desire to say here now that I was nominated by the Republicans of Pennsylvania and am responsible only to them.

"My business life has always been in the open. I am perfectly willing that the peope of Pennsylvania should know all about it. I have no fear of any statement of facts and I do not believe that the voters of this State will be deceived by any misrepresentation."

This declaration, which was made from the balcony of the McClelland House in Uniontown to a vast crowd that choked the street below, was received with tumultous applause. It is estimated that 30,000 people visited Uniontown yesterday. Special trains and trolleys were run from the Monongahela valley and the interior of the county, while autos and vehicles brought hundreds more. In the afternoon the Italian societies of the section celebrated Columbus Day by a big parade, after which Mr. Tener made an address to them and was accorded a big ovation.

Mr. Tener arrived in Uniontown in advance of the rest of his party. Among those who met him at the

Mr. Calistri will spend the winter months in the neighborhood of Florence visiting his parents, poor health making the trip necessary. He hopes to return much recuperated next spring A number of Italians from Belle Vernon and Twilight are expecting to sail on the same steamer with Mr. Calistri for visits at their old homes.

ENROLLMENT IN SCHOOLS

Increase Over That of Last Year for First Month.

The enrollment at the close of the first school month, high school and grades according to a report of Superintendent James G. Pentz, received by the school board at their postponed meeting Tuesday night, was 1,861, just 78 more, than the enrollment for the first month last year. Last year's enrollment at the beginning was 1,661, with an average attendance of 97 per cent. The report of Prof. Pentz for the past month follows:

Enrollment for year grades	1,780
Enrollment for year high school	81
Total	1,861
Grade average attendance	1,735
High School average attendance	79
Total	1,814
Grade per cent of attendance	98
High school per cent of attendance	98
Non resident pupils grades	29
Non resident pupils, high school	30
Absent on account of contagious disease	5
Number pupils out voluntarily for help	123
Visits by parents and patroons	67

The report is considered an exceptionally good one. One of the features is the number of non resident pupils in attendance, this indicating the fact that the standard of the Charleroi schools is higher than that in other nearby towns.

Miss Anne Sargent and Samuel Gainer, both of Fredericktown, were married by Rev C. APPROPRIATION BUT SLIGHTLY INCREASED

School Treasurer Receives Check from State for General School Fund in Charleroi District.

Treasurer R. H. Rush of the Charleroi School district has lately received the State appropriaton for the Charleroi schools and a small increase is noted. The appropriation is for the grades, the high school appropriation being separate.

The check revived by Mr. Rush is for $7,0[illegible] and is [illegible] $12.31 over the last year's school appropriation. This sum will be placed in the general fund. The appropriation last year was $7,297 97. The high school appropriation last year was $345 and will probably not be much greater this year

The appropriation is based upon three factors—the number of teachers the numcer of children in the district [illegible] taxables.

GOVERNOR NAMES FALL ARBOR DAY

October 28 is Set as the Time for Special Observance

State Superintendent of Public Instruction Nathan C. Schaffer Wednesday proclaimed Friday, October 28 as the Autumnal Arbor Day In his proclamation Schaeffer says:

The observance of Arbor Day has created a patriotic interest in the planting and preservation of trees. It has convinced the public of the importance of stopping and preventing forest fires, of the need of reforesting the vast mountain acres from which the timber has been cut and the necessity of conserving the forests at the sources of our streams, thereby to regulate the flow of water and to lessen the floods and freshets which rob the land of its soil and fertility moreover, it now is admitted generally that Arbor Day should be observed when all the country schools are in session. For this purpose Friday, October 28, 1910, is designated as autumn Arbor Day, and all the schools both public and private are urged hereby to observe the day by suitable exercises, especially by the planting of trees. Let all plant trees and ask others to plant trees.

CHARLEROI MAY HAVE CHICKEN SHOW

Another meeting will be held on next Tuesday evening, when it is thought many more will join the association It is the intention to have a poultry show later on. All perons interested in chickens may join and are requested to attend the next meeting.

John K. Tener and lower him in the estimation of the people, has been branded as false. This is through a sworn statement of Harry W. Geho, president Local Union 327, Brotherhood of Painters, Decorators and Paper Hangers of America. The statement was made for publication and is a complete retraction of the statement made last week in the Pittsburg Leader and other unscrupulous journals not caring particularly for the truth of the assertion, that Mr. Tener's home had been painted by "scab" painters. The statement which was originally addressed to the Pittsburg Gazette Times, follows:

Pittsburg Gazette Times,
Pittsburg, Pa.

Gentlemen:

Owing to a recent statement in the Pittsburg Leader to the effect that Mr. John K Tener, candidate for Governor of Pennsylvania, had his Charleroi residence painted by "scab" labor, I desire to say that such is not the case, as the contractor employed union labor in painting Mr. Tener's house,

Very respectfully,
Harry W. Geho,
President of Local Union 327, Brotherhood of Painters, Decorators and Paper Hangers of America.

Sworn and subscribed before me this twelfth day of October, A. D., 1910.

Charles O. Frye, Notay Public.
My commission expires January 1,1911.

Black Hand Methods

Congressman John K Tener's frank and manly statement in regard to the scurrilous attack of the Philadelphia North American upon his private business character is in marked contrast to the Black Hand and blackmailing methods of that paper which has resorted to most desperate methods in trying to bolster up the losing cause it espoused. As Mr Tener states, his whole business career has been an open book, as his business associates and neighbors well know, and any [illegible] be disproved. Mudslinging tactics are common in political campaigns, and curiously enough the most despicable type of this method of campaigning comes from a so called party of morality and reform. Concerning this method of campaigning the Pittsburg Gazette Times truthfully says:

"The mudslinger, the slanderer and the masked man with stiletto are abroad in the land in Pennsylvania, and they have picked out John K. Tener for their victim From now on until election the public may expect every conceivable display of venom and malice, every dear black mailing device known to scoundrelism, with Mr. Tener as the object before the people, and dismayed at the sure prospect of his election nothing that thugery and desperation can suggest will be overlooked by the despicable champions of a beaten cause."

These attacks cannot injurer Tener. The animus that inspires them is recognized by the people who believe in the American spirit of fair play, and the recorded vote will show that Black Hand methods will not win an election for the so-called and self-constituted group that poses as moral reformers.

No Double Taxes

In its efforts to array Republican voters against the admirable system of State taxation, the Washington Observer tries to make a point by asserting that the railroad corporations do not pay any local taxes on their rights of way, and because of this the individual pays more taxes than the railroad corporations. This is the old stock argument that demagogues flash upon the uninformed, and nothing is further from the truth. The corporations pay nearly three-fourths of the expenses of the State government, and if these corporations were exempt from the special tax imposed upon them, and paid their pro rata of local tax, on their public service holdings, the individuals would come in for their share of the State tax, which would be more burdensome, as many of the corporations that now pay this special tax do not have anything like railroad tracks to tax locally.

The revenue collected in Pennsylvania 1909 for State purposes was $29,011,183.70, and of this amount the corporations paid $16,961,602.02. If the corporations were forced to pay local taxes on certain holdings which are a part of the corporate structure on which they are taxed specially, the people would have to share in the payment of the sixteen millions collected from the corporations. Under the present system the odds are in favor of the individual.

In addition the State returns to the counties three fourths of the amounts collected for State purposes from the people. This in addition to the school appropriation and the amount received [illegible] liquor licenses, gives each county [illegible] from the State than it pays out [illegible] for instance. Washington county paid State taxes last year to the amount of $137,444 89, and got back from the State $513,582.20, giving a balance in favor of the county of $376,137.31. In other words, for every dollar Washington county paid to the State it got over three dollars back. Pennsylvania's tax system is being held up a model by tax commissions and eminent economists who are studying the taxation system, and it is everywhere acknowledged as one of the best in existence.

A Test

Through the regular channels of the law a test will be made locally of the merits of the State Railway commission, a body created by act of Assembly to adjust grievances between individuals and firms and public service corporations. The case in question is whether or not a street railway company and a steam railroad company can be made to accommodate the traveling public in the way of better connections between given points. Under present conditions a large portion of the traveling public is greatly discommoded, and it will be up to the State Railway commission to determine whether or not the corporations have a valid reason for maintaining present conditions.

Because of their public franchises which give them special privileges the corporations are in duty bound to serve the public. Heretofore the scope and sphere of such service have been entirely discretionary with the [illegible] complaint that this discretion has been arbitrarily abused at times, the State commission has been constituted to adjust complaints and differences. A failure to abide by the decision of the commission may subject the corporation to a forfeiture of its State charter. The present case affords a local test of the merits of the commission, and railroads will no doubt be compelled to show why, at least, they cannot conform to the convenience of the public

William H. Berry says he used to be a mechanic. He has nothing on John K. Tener who used to be a real worker.

The Washington Observer says 1,500 voters listened to Berry and Gibbony talk at California. Not that it matters, but the crowd was not over 150 in number, reckoning at the outside limits.

Two important events have occurred at Monongahela this year. the capture of an escaped murderer and a visit of a woman in black.

Valley and county people at large are tired of talking to B. and O. and Pittsburg Railways officials about making things more convenient for travel to the county seat The State Railroad commission is the alternative to which they have resorted.

Col. Roosevelt has taken to flying. That seems to be his proper vocation anyhow.

Rats cost $200,000 for slaughtering in the United States during the past year. Wonder what it costs to let them live.

For man's peace of mind and the preservation of his reputation it is advisible for him not to sleep on street car or railroad tracks.

The death rate for 1909 in the registration cities of the country dropped to 15 per thousand, the lowest on record. Does this mean that people have quit dying so young or just have become contaminated with the "back to the farm" movement and moved out of the large cities.

It is so important over in Westmoreland county to have people married that they stop court to permit the judge to perform the ceremony.

that in Germany, and cited as an example of the enthusiasm there the fact that at a recent meeting when a call for volunteer candidates was made 137 responded. Mrs. M. M. Albeck, of Monongahela spoke following Dr. Jensen, appearing as a representative of the Women's Home and Foreign Missonary society.

Upon recommendation of the special investigating committee appointed yesterday, of which Rev. H. W. Hanson of Allegheny was chairman, St. Paul's church of Kittanning was admitted to the Pittsburg Synod.

The obituaries of Rev. G. M. Heindel, D D., late of Pittsburg and Rev B. F. Shaner late of Tarentum were read and both ministers paid fitting tributes. Rev. W. Koolan, a representative of the Tabitha Home at Lincoln, Neb., which is reputed to be the best church hospital and home in the United States, was present and gave a stirring address of the work being done by the home. Rev. Stewart A. Hartman, D. D, of the home mission board spoke of the mission work being done in the northwestern field. Rev. J. Walter Miller of the American Bible society gave an account of what is being done by this international body, and said that there are Bibles in 30 different languages at the Pittsburg Depository at 41 Wood street, to be had by any person who makes proper application. The night session was taken up by two addresses carrying out the "Foreign Mission Anniversary" program. The first was by Rev John Aberly, D. D., a "returned" missionary of India home on a furlough. He spoke of "The Open Door at India," and said that the depressed classes there are through their acceptances of truths as taught by missonaries being elevated from their former condition. He said that India was open to both good and evil, but the latter was being counteracted by combining forces in accomplishing the former.

Rev. Taylor B. Yeakley of Pittsburg closed the meeting with his address on "The World's Leaven," claiming this to be the Word of God, the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

Tonight will be one of the most important meetings of the synod, when four candidates will be ordained into the ministery. They are: Charles W. Barnetto Chicora; James Uber of Milroy; J W. Shearer of Etrama and W. R. Goff S. Ernest Smith, Thomas Shearer, W K. Robb, Paul Fau, will be licensed to preach.

PILES DISAPPEAR

So Does Eczema, Salt Rheum, Ulcers, Old Sores and Carbuncles

Under the influence of San Cura Ointment surprising cures are made so quickly that they seem like miracles

Old sores that have caused the most intense suffering in body and mind, and that have failed to yield to any other treatment are quickly healed after the poison has been drawn out by San Cura Ointment.

Stubborn cases of piles like those of Rev. W. F. Gilbert of Titusville, Pa., vanish before this marvelous antiseptic Ointment. Mr. Gilbert writes:

"For 20 years I suffered with bleeding and itching piles; at times I was confined to the house for more than a month. Two years ago I began using San Cura Ointment and one 50c jar made a firm and permanent cure and have not been troubled since."

San Cura Ointment is guarnteed by W. F. Hennings who is the agent in Charleroi to cure any of the above named diseases or money back. It instantly kills all pain from burns, cuts and bruises, draws out the poison and heals in a short time. 25 cents and 50 cents a jar at Hennings.

station were Josiah V. Thompson, Congressman A. F. Cooper, County Chairman Ash F. Williams and George F Titlow. The program was to take the party to the Summit Hotel, high up in the Allegheny mountains, for luncheon.

The start was made from the station, and about a dozen automobiles were required to carry the party. Before luncheon the guests were taken out to Fort Necessity and Braddock's grave. Visits were also made to the country homes of Mr. Thompson, Mr. Titlow and Charles H. Seaton.

The party returned from the mountains in time to review the Italian societies. Later Mr. Tener was greeted at the Titlow and McClelland Hotels by thousands of Republicans from Fayette and Greene counties, as well as from all along the valley. A big delegation went up from Charleroi, Monessen, Belle Vernon and other valley towns. In the evening the balance of the campaign party arrived, and the speaking took place from the balcony of the McClelland House. Among those who made addresses in addition to Mr. Tener were Senator Crow, Congressman John F. Reynolds, Senator Langfitt, Col Crago, and others. The rally was one of the most enthusiastic in the campaign, and showed clearly that Republicanism is still alive in "Old Fist."

Gone For Good.

Some folks in foreign lands have their own way of determining whether their relatives who have migrated to this land of ours have become hopelessly Americanized One old lady in Germany reached her conclusion in a way that can be appreciated only by those who know the type of the German butter dish, deep as a bowl, and the German reverence therefor Last week her granddaughter in New York received this sad lament:

"You will never come back. You are lost to us. Hans (a cousin) arrived here from New York on Monday and reports that you have even given up our deep German butter dishes and are using those shallow little plates that Americans like"—New York Times.

"So you love your new little brother?" asked the visitor. "Well dearie, will you sell him to me? I'll give you $1 for every ounce he weighs"

"No, I won't!" answered the angel child

"Dear, loyal little sister!" beamed the visitor. "And why not?"

"Because," answered the tiny tot, with a quivering lip—"because he only weighs six pounds Come back next month an' I'll see if we can't make a deal."—Cleveland Leader.

The Cry of the Age is "Back to the Farm"

With the best market in the world at his door, the intensive farmer located in the Monongahela valley is the wise man of his generation.

Every town has as much need of the small truck, fruit and poultry farms around it as it has for more factories. Such farms make living better and cheaper for the laboring man and more business for the merchant.

I have secured control of a large farm within five minutes walk of the borough limits and will, within the next six weeks, sell it out in small farms. I now have purchasers for about one-half of it and owing to the great demand for small farms near Charleroi expect to close all sales for these farms in a very short time.

A farm big enough for all the boys to work as a truck, poultry and fruit farm while the father works at the mill, can be bought for the price of a cheap town lot. Good country school nearby.

A farm big enough to require the whole time of one intensive farmer can be bought for $500.00. Read the Pittsburg papers about the great land show which will be held there within the next few weeks and learn what can be raised on a few acres of ground by the new methods of intensive farming.

Life Insurance or Death Insurance—Which?

People willingly pay large sums for life insurance, which is really death insurance; but real life insurance frequently consists in taking Eckman's Alterative.

Can any "lung sick" person afford not to take the Alterative?

It sharpens the appetite, makes life look different, brings better health with greater earning power. Often persons are so much improved that they can work even before they are finally cured.

Investigate it, if you are broad minded enough to believe that there can be a cure for Consumption which has not been sensationally exploited, or which is not based merely on climatic or diet restrictions. Mr. Webb's report follows:—

Weldon, Ill.

Gentlemen: "During 1905, my physician sent me to Texas, from there to Colorado. I became worse and was sent home to die. I heard of Eckman's Alterative, began treatment, and was cured. I earnestly recommend Eckman's wonderful cure for Consumption."

BLANKETS

This store has been buying Blankets of the right kind for most fifteen years and found only one bad one, and that customer got a new blanket, and then admitted two rambunctious boys had ripped a hole in it. Isn't that a record? Well! We think so and so do the people, and that accounts for them coming here in such large numbers for blankets.

You've got to depend on a store for blankets of the right kind, and the store depends on the manufacturer. Now we say, "leave it to us." We won't overcharge you, but good blankets with good wool cost a fair price.

Our blankets are now in and marked in plain figures, and you can see them with both eyes open and feel of their goodness with both hands. Oh! It's easy to buy good blankets here.

This year we've added a line of fine all [illegible] are pretty, soft and serviceable and sell at $2.00, $2.50, $3.00, $3.50.

Then there comes the cotton blankets that are used so much for sheets—and we've got the kind that's big enough for a sheet, light and dark colors. These good sized blankets sell at $1.00, $1.25, $1.50 and $2.00, and we don't think you want the smaller kind.

Comfortables—they used to call them Haps—well, Haps or Comfortables or Bed quilts, we've got them and Jack Frost is sending in the buyers. There is nothing like having what the people want when they want it.

And that just reminds me that this big store has received over thirty thousand dollars' worth of new and dependable goods within the last six weeks. Well, I guess you'll find what you want when you want it.

Have you bought your boy your winter suit yet? Now you won't do justice to your boy until you see our Boy's Clothing. Let the boys come in—they'll tell you. More than that, we don't care if the boy is four years or two times forty years, we've got the right clothes for him, and we guarantee the goods and the price.

Shop talk may seem easy, but we are here to prove—it matters not if you are from Missouri or Pennsylvania.

RUSSIAN SYMPHONY LAST TO BE HEARD

Famous Orchestra Will Close Pittsburg Exposition

The Russian Symphony Orchestra will begin a six days' engagement at the Exposition on Monday afternoon, October 17. This will be the last week of the season and no better attraction for a closing feature could have been selected than the famous organization that has popularized Russian melody throughout the country. The return of this brilliant company of musicians will no doubt be hailed with delight by the music loving public. The appearance last year of this orchestra is well remembered. It came to Pittsburg practically unknown and went away leaving behind none but fond and lingering memories in the minds of all those who had the pleasure of attending the concerts. It was the Russian Symphony that acquainted Pittsburg with the works of [illegible] compositions were never heard here before. The purpose of this orchestra was to familiarize the American public with the compositions of Russian music masters and in doing so it has entrenched itself in the hearts of the people throughout the country. In the present day development of the symphony orchestra, and of the best in music, the Russian Symphony players and their gifted conductor, Modest Altschuler, have contributed a generous part. After seven years of hard work this institution has finally taken its place among the great orchestras of the United States.

Director Altschuler plans to offer orchestral works of the German, French and English schools at the forthcoming concerts, and enough compositions of so-called popular nature to combine, with other numbers, programs that will satisfy every variety of musical taste.

As next week is to be the last of the season large crowds will no doubt pay the Exposition a farewell visit. In a short time the wonderful wireless telegraph demonstration, the picturesque naval spectacle Monitor and Merrimac, with its never-to-be-forgotten battle; the postoffice exhibit the Latin-America booth, with its interesting information about trade relations and the Panama canal; the great mechanical and electrical features and many others will soon pass from view to become a pleasant memory of a season fraught with pleasure and entertainment of the highest type.

Similar Tastes.

Belle—But do you think you and he are suited to each other? Nell—Oh, perfectly! Our tastes are quite similar. I don't care very much for him, and he doesn't care very much for me.—Paris Figaro.

Willing to Pass.

"How do you like the new oatmeal soap?" inquired the barber.

"Seems nourishing," replied the customer, "but I've had my breakfast."—Washington Herald.
